Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, After eight years of dedicated service to the South Dakota State Historical Society, Alice Louise Lentz will be retiring; and,

WHEREAS, Alice is credited with organizing and advancing the membership program of the State Historical Society, now totalling over 2,200 members; and,

WHEREAS, Alice's initiative and participation has made the annual meeting of the State Historical Society a focal point of its activities; and,

WHEREAS, Alice's dedication and enthusiasm has furthered an awareness and appreciation of South Dakota and its heritage; and,

WHEREAS, Alice's involvement has been an integral part of centennial planning and implementation for the State Historical Society; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper that the Governor of South Dakota recognize and commemorate the memorable milestones in the lives of the state's outstanding citizens:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim November 9, 1989, as in South Dakota, and I join with Alice's family and friends, who are attending a luncheon at the Cultural Heritage Center in celebration of her retirement, in wishing her continued health and happiness in a state that stands prouder today because of her contributions and commitment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
